Women's Day at St. John's College of Nursing is more than just a celebration; it's a reaffirmation of the invaluable contributions of women to society and healthcare. The program, meticulously organized by Ms. Adona Thomas and Ms. Bidhya Rai, featured an array of empowering activities, including motivational talks and a personality contest. Dr. Maya Mascarenhas' stirring address resonated with attendees, inspiring them to break barriers and pursue their dreams fearlessly. The felicitation of Sr. Sajitha Moothedan, Principal of SJCON, was a poignant moment, honoring her trailblazing leadership and dedication to nursing education.
