

WORLD HANDWRITING DAY

St. John's College Of Nursing conducted handwriting competition on February 5th,2024.

Total of 18 students from all the batches have actively participated in the competition.

Handwriting enthusiasts rejoiced on World Handwriting Day as they put pen to paper, celebrating the artistry and individuality of handwriting. The competition was a testament to the timeless appeal of handwritten communication, transcending digital realms. Laya Thomas, Jyothi Joy, and Deneeta Joseph emerged as champions, their elegant penmanship capturing the essence of expression and creativity. The event served as a reminder of the beauty and personal touch that handwritten notes impart in an increasingly digitized world.

The first prize was secured by Laya Thomas of BSC 2021 , second prize by Jyothi Joy of BSC 2020 and third prize by Deneeta Joseph of BSC 2022.